A Melvin Jones Fellowship is presented after Melvin Jones, the founder of Lions Clubs International. This is the highest form of recognition in Lionism.

Lion Murray has been involved in numerous capacities within the local community and the Lions Club. This has resulted in many achievements and accomplishments to his credit. Earlier this year Murray was recognized as having been a Lion for 50 years. Other notables include Life Membership and previous recognition as a Helen Keller Fellowship from Lions as well as a Paul Harris Fellowship from Rotary Clubs International. Murray even has a mountain and park named in his honour (Murray's Mountain), where a number of Orangeville youth can be seen tobogganing in the winter and playing field sports in the summer.

As a permanent recognition, Murray's name has also been added to an electronic listing of all individuals worldwide who have received this honour. Their names show in continuous rotation at the Lions Clubs International Worldwide Headquarters.
